

Solution to Script Rewrite

By Jay Lorch

Step 1: For each sentence on the left, reword it by filling in the blanks on the right. It will help to notice the pattern: that this can be done, for each sentence, by filling in the 25 blanks with 25 different letters of the alphabet. The re-written sentences are:

The quick brown fox jumped over the lazy dog.
Quartz jewel evoked many inexplicable feelings.
Equitable judge faxes pizza delivery man buckwheat.
Wicked jazz musician bought sixty-five plaques.
Monkey juggles hand-woven fez acquired from soapbox.
Boxing match frenzy viewed as quirk in Japan.
Oversized magic fishbowl is equinox jackpot.

Step 2: Since each sentence involved filling in 25 letters, one letter of the alphabet is missing from the blanks. Indeed, it is missing from the entire sentence. Determine the missing letter from each sentence. They are, in order: S, H, O, R, T, L, and Y, so the answer is SHORTLY.
